

Director of Sport

About us

Queen Anne's School is a busy and welcoming place to work. The School is located in beautiful 34-acre grounds with good transport links and within easy walking distance of Reading Station. We offer a number of staff benefits including excellent training and Inset opportunities, free gym membership, subsidised meals, free car parking, pension scheme and School fee reduction where appropriate.

The role

We are looking for an expert in the field of sport and sports science, to enhance our unique approach to teaching and learning. Queen Anne's has a long tradition of success on the sports field and in 2025 we were the U19 National Lacrosse Champions.

We are looking for a dynamic and visionary individual who can build on this success, sharing our aim for the girls to enjoy sport, realise its importance to their performance in every area of their lives and produce elite sportswomen who will act as role models.

This is a challenging and exciting opportunity, requiring a vision to develop the strategic direction of the department, leading a department of highly skilled and talented staff. Expertise in in one of our specialist sports and a track record of delivering results will be essential.

The successful candidate will have outstanding organisational skills, excellent interpersonal and communication skills, be able to inspire a passion for sport, have energy, drive and stamina and an understanding of the boarding community. An essential part of the role will be teaching A-level PE.

A salary will be offered in accordance with experience and qualifications. This salary will be reviewed annually.

Revised closing date for applications: Thursday 9th April 2026
