Ampleforth College - Join the team

Note from the Head

Ampleforth is a very worthwhile and fulfilling place to work, particularly so with its sense of mission as a Benedictine community, seeking to share the love of Christ with all who contribute to the flourishing of our pupils, as well as with the many visitors to the College. Leading the team here is a privilege and an honour.

Thank you for your interest in this role. I am here to guide and support your application to the College. Even if your Ampleforth pathway does not lead to employment here this time, please feel that I really appreciate you coming forward. The College has entered 2025 with confidence after a whole series of very successful inspections. Ampleforth offers the highest possible level of pastoral care, embedded in a robust safeguarding culture. Our pupils are happy, balanced and well grounded, benefiting from the breadth and excellence of our holistic education.

Good and inspiring teaching is key, however much the pupils learn for themselves. After all, the lessons we learn from others are often more important. Alongside the Ampleforth pursuit of academic excellence, the lessons we gain from music, drama, the visual arts, and sport are equally important for the whole person, the well-rounded character that Ampleforth appreciates more than other schools. I also strongly support the performing arts, one of Ampleforth's many existing strengths.

We live in a time when the transformative nature of St Benedict's teachings is sorely needed in the wider world. Everything we do here at Ampleforth is influenced by these teachings. They provide a Compass for Life which helps nurture young people of integrity, compassion, courage, and insight, and also extends to our wider life in this most beautiful of valleys where there is the constant opportunity to learn how we can be better stewards of the Earth around us, understanding how we can be at harmony with each other, as well as serve the needs of others.

The dedication of the Governors, the whole staff, and of the many friends of Ampleforth has inspired me to give all I can to the collective goal of being the leading Catholic boarding and day school with a unique holistic approach to helping our pupils flourish.

Jon Mutton, Headmaster

Mission Statement:

"An Ampleforth Education is an invitation to young people to discover the value and the purpose of life, by entering into a transforming encounter with Christ through active participation in the life of a living Christian Community."

Founded in 1802 and set in a beautiful Yorkshire valley, Ampleforth College is the world's foremost Catholic day and boarding school, welcoming girls and boys of all faiths aged 11-18.

Each student's unique talents are recognised and nurtured within a welcoming community rooted in Benedictine values. Ampleforth educates the whole person, unlocking what they can contribute to the world and fulfilling their academic potential. Proud of its academic excellence, the College does not select solely on ability and offers a system of dedicated tutors to ensure each student's progress. Students perform significantly above expectation. An Ampleforth education is a compass for life.

Over 80% of students are full boarders and come from across the whole of the UK and around the world.

We offer the breadth of opportunity for each student to discover and develop their interests and strengths and there is an exceptionally wide range of co-curricular activities. The College's first-class facilities are enhanced by expert staff who ensure that the students get the most out of them. There is a particular focus on charity work and service with many students involved in local community projects. The Combined Cadet Force, with both Army and Royal Air Force Sections, is also extremely popular. Students develop the confidence to lead as well as the humility to serve. They learn to work independently and work well with others. Amplefordians are inspired to be caring and thoughtful citizens who make the right decisions in life.

The Games Department

Sport forms an integral part of a child's development whilst at Ampleforth College. This is achieved through providing a sports programme that has a positive influence on all ages and all abilities and instils a life-long love for sport and physical activity. Our aim is to develop every child's interest, passion and performance in sport, from aspiring internationals to those who chose physical activity purely as part of a healthy lifestyle.

Ampleforth College offers an array of sporting opportunities across a range of sport, and we pride ourselves on delivering a wide and varied sporting program that caters for all abilities and aspirations. Ampleforth's long tradition of sporting excellence gives us the experience required to maximise every student's potential, regardless of the level of sport they play. To help achieve this, we offer outstanding facilities, regular contact time with each student, and an exceptional team of coaches.

The games department consists of nine full-time staff, with heads of sport across all of our major Sporting disciplines, including a team of dedicated postgraduate sports assistants, who assist and also lead on many of our sporting options. We are pleased to include a number of former international sportsmen and women, professional coaches, staff solely dedicated to the running of our school sport, and committed academic staff, that supplement our motivated and skilled academic staff in order to offer a market leading sports program in the north-east. This level of support guarantees the best possible environment for every student to develop their skills, including the very elite.

Through high quality teaching and resources, we aim to provide an inspiring experience to our students and to encourage in them a love of life-long independent learning. We offer a wide variety of team and individual sports, providing pupils with many opportunities to represent the College at all levels in inter-school fixtures. Each term, pupils are encouraged to participate in a range of sports including: rugby, hockey, netball, cricket, tennis, football, golf, cross-country, squash, and swimming.

Whilst representing Ampleforth at competitive sport is considered an honour and a privilege for our pupils, we recognise that it is not necessarily the right pathway for all. To that effect, we offer a variety of sports and physical activities such as dance, fishing, country sports, squash, fitness, and strength and conditioning.

If you have a desire to work with young people, are committed and excited about being involved in an all-round education, if you are proactive and inquisitive, hardworking, committed have integrity and want the best for your students then we would love to hear from you.

Why Ampleforth?

Catholic education and Benedictine values underpin everything we do at Ampleforth, whether a student or member of staff is Catholic or not. We believe that humanity is a gift that we receive through others and that our relationships unlock the unique potential in each person. Our values form the foundation of our approach to all our work and how we work with one another:

Respect: recognising and nurturing the unique talents of every individual and oneself, understanding that we grow and learn from our differences and are made a better person by each other.

Hospitality: committing to live in such a way as to be welcoming and open to all, and to invite people to experience living life more fully in our community.

Attentiveness: being sensitive to the needs of others as well as one's own needs and supporting the mutual well-being of everyone in the community; wanting what is best for each other.

Equilibrium: nurturing the well-being and resilience of each individual and one's own, and thereby of the community, to achieve mental and emotional balance and personal fulfilment.

Stewardship: cultivating a sense of responsibility and care for the people and the world around us, as well as oneself, to ensure our community and environment thrive.

Integrity: developing within ourselves strong principles, sound judgement, and the resilience needed to do the right thing.
